We had the pleasure on yet erday of listening to a most excellent and instructive sersion from Rev. Mr. Meadows, of Lafayette county, Mississippi. It is a pity that our regiment and all our troops cannot have the benefit of such preaching every Sabbath. It would do a vist amount of good, and check the increasing demoralization of our coldiers. Our people stand in greater need of moral restrains here than at home, especially such as might be thrown around us by the presence, the influence and Christian character are unquestioned. It is not a good gless, however, not a superstance and Christian character are unquestioned. It is a province of course, go far to meet the ment of course, go far to meet the emergency.
